SEBASTIAN -- Friends of the North Indian River County Library celebrated the beginning of their third year of Classic Films with a Twist on Jan. 3 with a party.

Seventy fans laughed through the screening of a full-length Cary Grant comedy and enjoyed popcorn, colas, and cake. Host Joe Gramm, led the discussion and trivia contest after the film and distributed prize baskets to the six top winners.

First prize basket went to Janet Rafferty; second prize to Fern Hundley; third to Madeline Pedraza; fourth to David Roy; fifth to Betty Taylor; and sixth to Victoria Lada.

Everyone who attended also received a gift of either a DVD or a book.

Classic Films with a Twist is presented on the first Thursday of every month at 1:30 pm at the North Indian River County Library in Sebastian. Admission is free to the public.

The library is located at 1001 Sebastian Blvd. in Sebastian. For further information call 772-589-1355.

Pulte Homes opens sales at Magnolia Court in Vero Beach

VERO BEACH -- Pulte Homes has begun sales at its newest Indian River County community, which is called Magnolia Court.

The home builder is offering three single-family designs on 93 lots starting at $249,990. "Magnolia Court creates an intimate neighborhood where retirees and families feel connected," said Brent Baker, president of Pulte's Southeast Florida division. "The location and price fit with people seeking a quality residence convenient to work, shopping, schools and medical care."

Magnolia Court sits at 5185 Kipper Way, near the intersection of 53rd

VERO BEACH -- Indian River Community Foundation awarded $100,000 to Gifford Youth Achievement Center from its Community Enrichment Fund.

The money will be used to support the construction of a facility expansion.

"Thank you, thank you, thank you," remarked Freddie Wolfork, GYAC's public relations and facilities operations director, before leading a "hard hat" tour for a group of approximately 30 people.

Once completed, the 14,000-square-foot expansion will add eight multipurpose rooms and a computer lab, increasing the organization's capacity to serve at least 300 young people per day.

"This project is the result of the dedication, hard work and generosity of so many caring members of our community," said Scott Alexander, senior managing director of Northern Trust, and long time GYAC board member. "We are extremely grateful for the Community Foundation's charitable investment in our work."

While most of the Community Foundation's grants are awarded by clients through donor advised funds, Indian River Community Foundation's competitive grant program is made possible through the generosity of anonymous donors to several grantmaking funds, including the Community Enrichment Fund.

These valuable resources support the Community Foundation's mission of building a better community through donor-driven philanthropy. Indian River Community Foundation was established in 2008 with a mission of building a better community through donor-driven philanthropy.

With assets of almost $50 million in 165 charitable giving accounts, the Community Foundation and its clients have awarded more than $53 million in grants, mostly to nonprofit charitable organizations located in Indian River County, Florida.
