VERO BEACH -- In celebration of World Kindness Day, the Gifford Youth Achievement Center is planning a pop-up drive-in movie experience.

"As a nonprofit focused on inspiring people of ages and backgrounds to reach their ultimate potential, kindness is intrinsic to our organization. With drive-in movie showings on the rise, we look forward to offering a safe, feel-good way to bring the community together," says Angelia Perry, GYAC executive director.

The drive-in movie will take place at Riverside Park on Nov. 13 at 6 p.m. To make admission affordable for families, GYAC will charge $10 per carload. Space is limited, masks are encouraged due to social distancing guidelines and food will be available for purchase.

Partnership opportunities are available and range from $2,500 for an exclusive presenting partnership to $500 for kindness partners. Benefits vary ac-
